

SPAGtastic Start!

Spelling

1. What one prefix can be added to these words to make their antonyms? Write it in the box.

regular relevant replaceable

2. Use the correct near homophones in the sentences below.

One _____ of global warming is a rise in temperature. (effect/affect)

Using too much fuel will _____ the environment. (effect/affect)

Punctuation

1. Add a semicolon to the sentence below.

Tom put on sun cream it was a hot day.

2. Tick where the dashes go in this sentence. Tick two.

Mrs Smith who has red hair stepped off the bus

3. Re-write this sentence with accurate punctuation.

sams dog was excited its tail wagged excitedly

_____

Active & Passive

1. Re-write the sentence below to make it passive.

Daisy spilt the drink.

_____

_____

2. Re-write the sentence below to make it active.

Ancient relics were discovered by archaeologists.

_____

_____

Tenses

1. Change the verb in brackets to the present progressive form.

Sarah _____ (hope) her dog will get better.

My friend _____ (travel) to Portugal next week.

2. Which verb form completes the sentence? Tick one.

After the cat _____ its dinner, it lays by the fire.

is eating

has eaten

was eating

eats

Word Classes

1. Circle the adverb in the sentence below.

Silently, the tiger pounced on its helpless prey.

2. What is the word class of the underlined word in the sentence below?

In London there are fantastic museums.

common noun

pronoun

proper noun

preposition

3. Complete the sentence below with a subordinating conjunction.

I'm wearing a coat _____ it's raining.

